FUNDING: Early Years Free Entitlement (15 hours) is Government funding which pays for up to 570 hours/year of free education to all 3 & 4-year-old children in England, from the term after their third birthday. This covers 15 hours per week. Parents may be able to access an additional 15 hours, provided they meet the eligibility criteria. The Chelsea Nursery also has a limited number of completely free places for two-year-old children who meet certain eligibility criteria.
